COUNTY EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE.

There will be a meeting of the Demo cratic County Executive Committee, at the INTELLIGENCER Office, on Monday west, at 11 o'clock a. m. A full meeting of the Committee is earnestly desired, as important business will come before the Committee. All members are urged to attend punctually. E. B. MURRAY, County Chairman.

The Pendleton stock exhibition comes off to-day (Thursday). Quite a large number of improved horses and colts will be exhibited, and also numerous herds of registered cattle. In addition to these attractions, Ex-Governor Perry will deliver an address before the Pendleton Farmers' Association. Great preparations have been made for the occasion, and a most interesting exhibition may be expected.

Two years ago Mr. W. W. Russell stated in private convenation and in his public speeches that he was a true Democrat—that he was as much opposed to the Republican party as any man in the State, and that if the Republicans attempted to run a ticket he would come back to the Democratic party, and work sylvania. Russell stated would bring him back to the Democratic party. The Republicans have nominated presidential electors and a State ticket. Mr. Russell is nominated as one of the presidential electors. His friends are now watching his actions with anxious solicitude. There are many of them who believe that in 1882 he was mistaken in judgment, but honest and sincere in his statements and promises. The time has now come which will prove whether he spoke truthfully when he promised to come back to the Democratic party if the Republicans nominated a ticket. It will also prove whether or not Mr. Russell was sincere when he stated that he had no sympathy with the Republicans. Will he run now as a Republican Elector? We shall be greatly disappointed if he does, for after the speeches he made two years ago he cannot honorably do so. We will, however, not have to wait long to decide, for if he declines he will have to do so promptly. If he does not decline, he will have to go back upon his promises two years ago, and will prove himself an associate and companion of the fag-end of the Republican party in this State.

A Modern Gretna Green.

As the law in this State forbids the issuance of a marriage license to a couple where one of them is under age and objection is raised thereto from paternal sources, it is becoming quite the style for youthful cooples in this section to fice to South Carolina and have the bans proclaimed. It is being carried to such an excess that it is probable a system of inter-State laws will have to be made to put a stop to 1. As long as the business was confined to one couple here and there, it did not sanks much difference, but it has now come to such a pass that the old folks are biginning to grumble. They have commenced to take the South Carolina trip on a wholesale scale, the couples forming parties and going together on grand matrimonial physimages. When the train came in from Fort Mill S. U. yesterday afternoon, a pair of bridal couples got off and boarded the train for Concord, being on their return home. Anybody could have told that they were bridal couples by their looks and out of pure curiosity nearly everybody about the deput got to taking vothern. It was found that of one of the couples, the groom was the younger by a number of years, and it was for his benefit that the bride had consented to fee to found. Carolina and so joined. The other couple found that it would be more couple found th

Republicans in Secret Session. The Columbia Register, of last Friday,

The State Executive Committee of the Republican party met at the Postoffice building last night. A sentinel was stationed at the Main Street entrance to the building who was instructed not to admit any one who did not bear the stamp of a true blue Republican or who was not of their friends, the Indepenlents. The door was locked and unlock ed as occasion required. The partici-pants in the meeting were pledged to secrecy except as to those matters which were desired to be made public. Orations were frequently delivered during the session of the committee, but they sounded only as a mumble of words to the reporters who hung on the railings to the rear of the building.

The platform and address of the comnittee to the Republicans and Independents will be prepared by a sub-committee.

J. Hendrix McLane was present, engineering the interests of the Independents, who failed to accomplish anything under the name of Greenbackers in 1882, and whose ranks to-day are only of strength in the imagination. But the Independents have managed to make the National Republican Committee believe that they are "some pumpkins," and hence the State Committee have been compelled to give them recognition, as will be seen by the fusion in the following Electoral ticket:

Electors at large-Dr. W. D. Krum, olored, of Charleston; W. W. Russell. Independent, of Ar lerson.

1st District—Dr. M. H. Collins of Charleston. 2d District-Dr. W. D. Durham, Independent, of Aiken.

3d District-J. C. Hunnicut, Indepen-4th District-C. C. Turner, of Spartanburg.

5th District-F. A. Clinton, colored, of 6th District-Rev. J. E. Wilson, colored, of Darlington.

A Stirrer up of Strife.

The Abbeville Press and Banner publishes a circular letter from Lem Guffin which was sent to certain persons in that county urging the negroes to action. The letter is as follows:

AUGUST, 28, 1884.-Do you remember, if not ask some of the older members of your family if they remember how they were watched and guarded in old times, when there was a spy in your chimney corner, and all your conversations cavedropped to keep you from learning what was being done of the Abolition party to make you free. You are still watched to make year free. You are still watched by the same party. You cannot hold a prayer meeting but they have their spies and sneaks around to report all that is said or done. That is the way they acc rid your rights. Read what the Press and Banner says. Don't that recall the days when a meddling Abolitionist was treated to a coat of tar and feathers for interfering with their loved institution—slavery. But now that you are free, the penalty for advising you to contend for those God given rights that are dear to the hearts of all freemen is death. Does the Press and Banner not advise the Democracy to murder me if I come to Abbeville to help you in this your hour of need? Some general said all he wanted to know in laying his plan of hettle was first fad battle was first to find out what his enemy wanted him to do, and that he was sure not to do. Wilson wants Ab. Titus for chairman of the Republican party of Abbeville County. Do Look for your old friend, Don't have him.

Blaine and the Letters.

LEM GUFFIN.

NEW YORK, October 5-2 a. m .- An other letter referring to the Mulligan business has come to light. In 1880 Blaine believed he had a fair chance to secure the Presidential nomination in spite of the Stalwart scheme to renomiate Gen. Grant. It is well known that he laid his plans to break the Grant delegations from New York and Penn-back to the Democratic party, and work earnestly for its success. Now the conditions have been fulfilled which Mr. preparatory to his leading, as he believed the grand old party Presidential campaign.

It was rumored at that time, and the umor was renewed early in this year's campaign, that he had made attempts to secure his letters which remained in the hands of James Mulligan.

The following letter from Warren Fisher, of which a fac simils copy will be published in the World to-morrow mornng, proves that these rumors were true:

"In April or May of 1880, Blaine sent word to have me meet him at the Fifth Avenue Hotel. He then authorized me to get the letters from Mulligan, pay $10,000 if I could not get them for less, and then wanted Mr. Mulligan and myself to go to Europe and remain until after the election, all at his expense. Mr. Mulligan declined the offer. He said Blaine had stolen his letters in Washington and he never should have what he held at any price.

Yours, &c., Warren Fisher.
Windsor, Vt., July 12, 1884."

Hanged And Yet Alive.

LITTLE ROCK, ARK., September 30 .-Particulars of the execution of Joe Bo-gard at Lonoke, on the 27th of August, gard at Lonoke, on the 27th of August, for assault on the eleven-year-old daughter of a farmer named Rhea, have already been given. Mr. George Sibley, a leading lawyer of Lonoke County, who was appointed by the court to defend the negro, is now in this city. He reports positively that although the negro was suspended in the air forty minutes and was pronounced dead, he is alive to-day. The negro was raised near Des Arc., in Prairie County, and after the execution his body was delivered to his father, who started in a wagon with the corpse for his home.

Before proceeding far the old man was nearly frightened out of his wits by hearing a groan from the lips of his compenions poured some whisky down the throat of the supposed corpse, and in less than an hour Joe Rogard had opsned his eyes, and Ly the time his father's home in Prairie County was reached he was able to get out of the wagon without help. Shariff Reinhart of Prairie County, secording to Sibley's story, first heard that Bogard had returned to life from some negroes, who wished him to go and arre- him. Sibley says Bogard's relatives have secreted him and have asked Sibley for his legal opinion as to whether the man can be hanged again, having once paid the penalty of the law.

The Georgia State Election.

AUGUSTA, GA., October 2.—In yesterday's State election there as no opposition to the Democratio tickes and the vote was very much lighter than four years ago, when a bitter contest for Governor was waged between Colquitt and Norwood. The Legislature elected will return Hon. Joseph E. Brown to the United States Senate. The independents were defeated in Burke and Groen Counties and their other strongholds. In several Counties in this section the prohibition licket was generally successful but evented as Democratic division. Prohibition in one form or and her exists in 90 of the 187 Execution in the States.

"SUCCESS IS IN THE AIR." conkling Predicts that Cleveland Will Carry New York.

NEW YORK, October 2.-Roscoe Conkling, who knows New York politics as well as any man in the country, said yesterday: "The best judges in New York City do not think Butler will poll 12,000 votes there, and it is doubtful if he gets 20,000 in the whole Empire State. Even this vote subtracted from the Dem ocratic numbers seems disastrous at first sight, but closer consideration shows that throughout the Republican canvass into account. This unspoken element which is to play so prominent a part in the campaign is the disaffected Stalwart element, which is better defined in New York than elsewhere, and which will undoubtedly overcome all effort that can be made by the Republicans for gaining the Empire State to Blaine's support, It is also very probable in New York, and almost unquestionable in Massachusetts, that the Independent Republicans will by far exceed any addition that the Irish-American elements may give Blaine and Logan in those States, and considering these facts, there are no reasons why Cleveland will not carry reasons why Cleveland will not carry New York, provided that State does not give Blaine a stronger vote than it did Garfield, which is out of the question at this era of affairs."

The reports from the great Independent meeting in Boston last night show

L. P. GULLEY,

J. WALTER SHERARD,

how deep the disaffection is there. One opinion is quoted here to day with great satisfaction, namely, that of Dr. James Freeman Clarke, one of Boston's bright-est, intelligent lights, who said: "I re-cently visited Governor Cleveland in Albany, and spent an hour with him alone in his private room. He talked with simplicity and freedom, with a manner which carried conviction of its truthfulness. He did not pretend that he had not done wrong. From what he said I was satisfied that no one suffered more than himself from his past errore, and I was convinced that he had left them behind. But I gathered this not from any formal confession or profession, but from the depth of conviction with alone in his private room. He talked but from the depth of conviction with which he spoke."

The Republican said: "Roscoe Conkling is the man over all the New York Stalwarts, and all of the work done during the campaign will be under his direction. It was just the other night New York Stalwarts held a meeting in New York. It was then decided to pre-pare an address, which has been finished and which will be passed along the lines from the Atlantic to the Mississippi, and Circulated in every place where it will do Matters are booming at headquarters and money is pouring in. Within the last fortnight a wonderful change has come over the spirit with which the public seems to look at National politics. Democratic success seems to be in the air. A dozen men with whom I have talked to day say that their doubts of two weeks ago have been entirely cleared away, and they are now sure of Cleveland's election.
